

Glossary

- Duration: how long a movie should last for
- Timeslot: contains the start time and duration of a movie
- Movie Screening: contains the timeslot (start time and duration) and the screen of a movie that will be shown on
- Schedule: make a plan for a movie about when it will be shown on which screen
- Reschedule: change the plan for a movie about when it will be shown on which screen
- Capacity: the maximum number of people that a screen can hold
- Customer: the person who buys movie tickets
- Ticket: the certificate for customers to view movies after purchasing it
- Overlap: the newly updated movie screening (start time, duration, and screen) conflicts with the existing movie screening in the system